

Same Sky Trustee Recruitment

Call for New Trustees – Same Sky

Same Sky is seeking new Trustees to join our Board at an exciting time of growth and development. We are a creative organisation working at the intersection of arts, culture, education and community, delivering inspiring projects that support learning, participation and creative opportunity for young people and wider communities.

About Same Sky

At Same Sky, we specialise in delivering transformative arts experiences that connect people to their communities and sense of place. From the iconic Burning the Clocks winter solstice celebration in Brighton, to the Children's Parade opening Brighton Festival, and events like Glow Wild at Wakehurst with audiences exceeding 30,000, our work spans festivals, multicultural celebrations, and educational settings across the region.

Our events and project bring people together through creativity, participation and shared cultural experience, creating moments of joy, connection and belonging.

Who we are looking for

As we look to strengthen our governance and expand our impact, we are inviting applications from individuals who share our values and are passionate about the role that the arts and culture can play in creating positive social change.

We are particularly interested in Trustees with expertise in:

- Philanthropy and individual giving
- Fundraising and development
- Marketing, communications, PR and audience engagement
- Strategic planning and organisational growth
- Arts, culture and creative industries
- Education and youth work
- Finance, accounting and charity governance
- Corporate partnerships and sponsorship

Same Sky Trustee Recruitment

Previous board experience is welcome but not essential. We are committed to building an inclusive and diverse Board and encourage applications from individuals currently underrepresented in arts and charity governance.

What You'll Gain

Trustees play a vital role in guiding Same Sky's strategic direction, supporting the organisation's sustainability, and ensuring strong governance. This is a rewarding opportunity to contribute your skills, networks and insight to a mission-driven organisation making a real difference.

As a Trustee, you'll have the chance to:

- Learn more about charity governance and strategy
 - Develop leadership and advocacy experience within the arts sector
 - Help shape the future of a major cultural organisation in the region
 - See behind the scenes of Same Sky's events and creative programmes
 - Be part of a supportive, collaborative, and imaginative community

Time Commitment

This is a voluntary role. You will attend five board meetings per year (typically on weekday evenings in central Brighton, with virtual attendance options). With an additional 1 hour per month commitment to support general charity governance. You may also be invited to take part in strategy sessions and away day activities on an ad hoc basis.

Interested?

If you are excited to support Same Sky's mission and believe you have the skills and experience to contribute, we'd love to hear from you. Please send your CV and a cover letter detailing how and why you would like to be an observer to the board, to [insert contact email], before [Closing Date XXX]

Be a part of creating vibrant, meaningful community arts experiences with Same Sky. Apply today!
